This year, we are excited to be back on the CSU campus to offer in-person, immersive creative writing workshops for students entering 4th-12th grades!

Students will experiment with hands-on writing techniques in various genres of writing with support from experienced creative writing teachers. They will share their work in small writing groups and will participate in a workshop with a visiting published writer.

Snacks will be provided daily, and students will receive a t-shirt at the end of the week!

THE DETAILS...

Cost: $200

(includes snacks and a t-shirt)

A limited number of scholarships will be offered on a sliding scale, based on financial need.

Payment/Registration
